

Reasonable Suspicion Supervisor Training

Meets the Requirements of DOT-Mandated Supervisors.

CorporateMed Drug
Testing Employee
Education

As a supervisor of DOT-covered employees, you're required to take DOT Supervisor Training (per §382.603). If you supervise FMCSA-mandated drivers subject to 49 CFR 40 and 382. If you have any DOT mandated employees CDL Drivers. This course will enable you to:

- Recognize the signs, symptoms, and indicators of substance abuse in the workplace.
- Identify, document, and manage reasonable suspicion testing.
- Comply with federal DOT regulations requiring 2-hour Reasonable Suspicion training for all supervisors—1 Hour of Drug and 1 Hour of Alcohol Training With certificate when completed for only $59.00

Why It's Important:

Substance abuse directly threatens workplace safety, and the transportation industry is among the most vulnerable. In addition to being required by federal law, this course will give your supervisors practical, reasonable suspicion intervention instructions, including tips for confronting the employee and scenarios that require them to respond to sensitive situations in a practice environment.
